

Citation
to accompany the award of the Joint Meritorious Unit Award to the Joint Task Force Provide Promise

The Joint Task Force PROVIDE PROMISE distinguished itself by exceptionally meritorious achievement from 1 February 1993 to 31 January 1994. During this period, the Joint Task Force provided critical humanitarian aid to the populace of the former Republic of Yugoslavia. Along with this aid, Joint Task Force PROVIDE PROMISE also provided security to the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and critical medical support at the US hospital located in Zagreb, Croatia. The combined efforts of the Joint Task Force have provided not only relief, but a ray of hope to the millions of people who have otherwise been cut-off from the rest of civilization by this horrible and bloody civil war. By their exemplary performance of duty, the members of the Joint Task Force PROVIDE PROMISE have brought great credit to themselves and to the Department of Defense.

Given under my hand this 18th day of February 1994

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "John Shalikashvili", is written over a horizontal line.

Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff